S&G

“I'm not running the Sodom and Gomorrah of Drapery Hardware!” maintained Mr Y to the staunch Baptist of the board. She insisted on Christian Counseling, followed by the illicit couple imploring forgiveness of mates.

Nothing was done, and said couple went on to other sinners in the firm.

Then, in a decision more greedy than carnal, the manufacturing was outsourced to Haiti.

There affairs would be darker and French-speaking, thus not likely to filter back.